

Module two: Understanding the past for a child or young person – Assessment

Participant's name:

Date of training:

Worksheets

Please complete these questions in your own time and bring to the next session.

1. a) List 5 areas of development for children and young people and briefly describe each.

2. a) What effects can abuse have on a child? (provide 4 examples)

b). How would these effects of abuse be different for children of different ages?

c) What would you, in your role as a carer, do to assist a child or young person who has experienced harm? (provide 3 examples)

d) What are your responsibilities in relation to disclosure of harm by a child in your care?

e) Who would you talk to about this?

3. Why could it be difficult for a child or young person who has experienced harm to develop a trusting relationship with other people?

4. *How could you help a child or young person in your care to deal with loss and grief?
(provide 3 examples)*

5. a) Provide 3 examples of prohibited practices

*b) how would you assist a child or young person to maintain connections with their family?
(provide 3 examples)*